Global Citizens River Conservation Day

Keep OCTOBER 2, 2010 open for this year's Global Citizens River Conservation Day, which is a cleanup of tributaries to the Kalamazoo River within the Greater Battle Creek area. (Because of this year's oil spill, no work sites will be on the Kalamazoo River directly.) It began through an international agreement from the city of Battle Creek's sister city relationship with Takasaki, Japan in 2001.

Anyone from kids to the elderly can get involved. Get your civic club, school group, scout group, or church

Registration begins at 8:30 a.m.

at CO Brown Stadium
Bailey Park

Reasons to Attend:

- Participate in a Community Event.
- Help keep our area clean!
- Be a part of an international effort with the motto, "Let's Think Globally Together!"
- Have fun
- Get a new T-shirt
