

Rain Gardens: Sustainable Landscaping for a Beautiful Yard

Mondays
March 9–March 30
6:00–8:00 PM
$135

Kellogg Community College Main Campus
Lane-Thomas Building, Room 303

Visit kellogg.edu/lifelong to register online or call the Lifelong Learning Office at 269.965.4134 to register by phone.

kellogg.edu/lifelong

ll-info@kellogg.edu

269.965.4134

Join us for a hands-on course focused on creating a beautiful rain garden that protects the environment, provides habitat for wildlife and improves your property. You will learn what a rain garden is and how your rain garden will help to keep storm water on site, and improve water quality while creating a beautiful landscape feature. At the end of the four-week class, you will leave with the skills to design and install your own rain garden—just in time for spring planting.

